DETAILED ACTION

This communication is responsive to the amendment filed July 7, 2005

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 5-8 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pinschmidt et al. ('276).

Pinschmidt et al. discloses a multi-plate clutch (Fig. 6) with engagement elements (28, 36), a cylindrical case (16), a tone wheel (74), and fluid ports (56, 58, 76).

Concerning the method limitations (claims 6 and 8), the method of forming the device is not germane to the issue of patentability of the device itself. Therefore, this limitation has not been given patentable weight. Also, although the tone wheel of the prior art is nearer the closed end of the clutch case, for examination purposes it is considered to be near the open end.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 9-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pinschmidt et al. in view of Kumamoto et al. ('575).

Pinschmidt et al. does not teach a tone wheel with openings. Kumamoto et al. discloses a tone wheel with slit-like openings for detecting the position of the wheel/case. Then, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a tone wheel with slit-like openings in the device of Pinschmidt et al. in view of Kumamoto et al. to improve the accuracy of the device.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments concerning claim 5 (filed July 7, 2005) have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. For examination purposes it is noted that the oil ports are positioned in a position axially opposite the sensing area. Also, by virtue of the tone wheel being rotationally fixed with respect to the clutch case, the rotational speed is going to be inevitably associated with the position of the oil ports. In other words, since the tone wheel and the clutch case rotate together, the signal generated by the sensor will correspond to the position of at least some the oil ports.

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 9-12 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
